CORDELL BRIGGS EDITOR

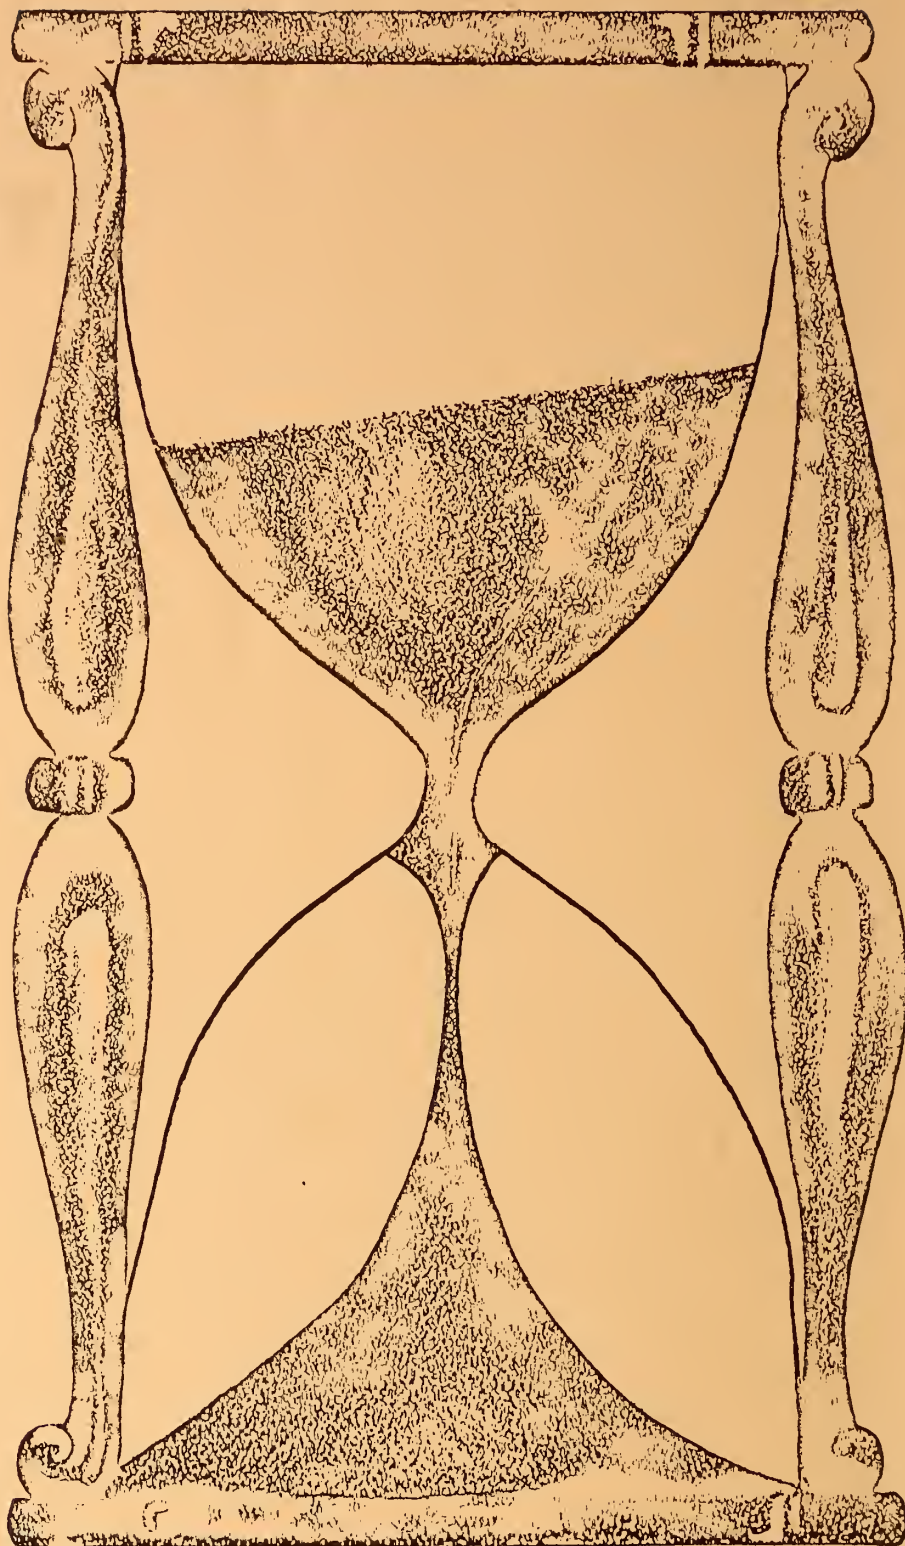

A dolorous millenium of darkness
Has approached its year of noblesse,
Conceived in a history that is fix'd
In the memorable year eighteen ninety-six.

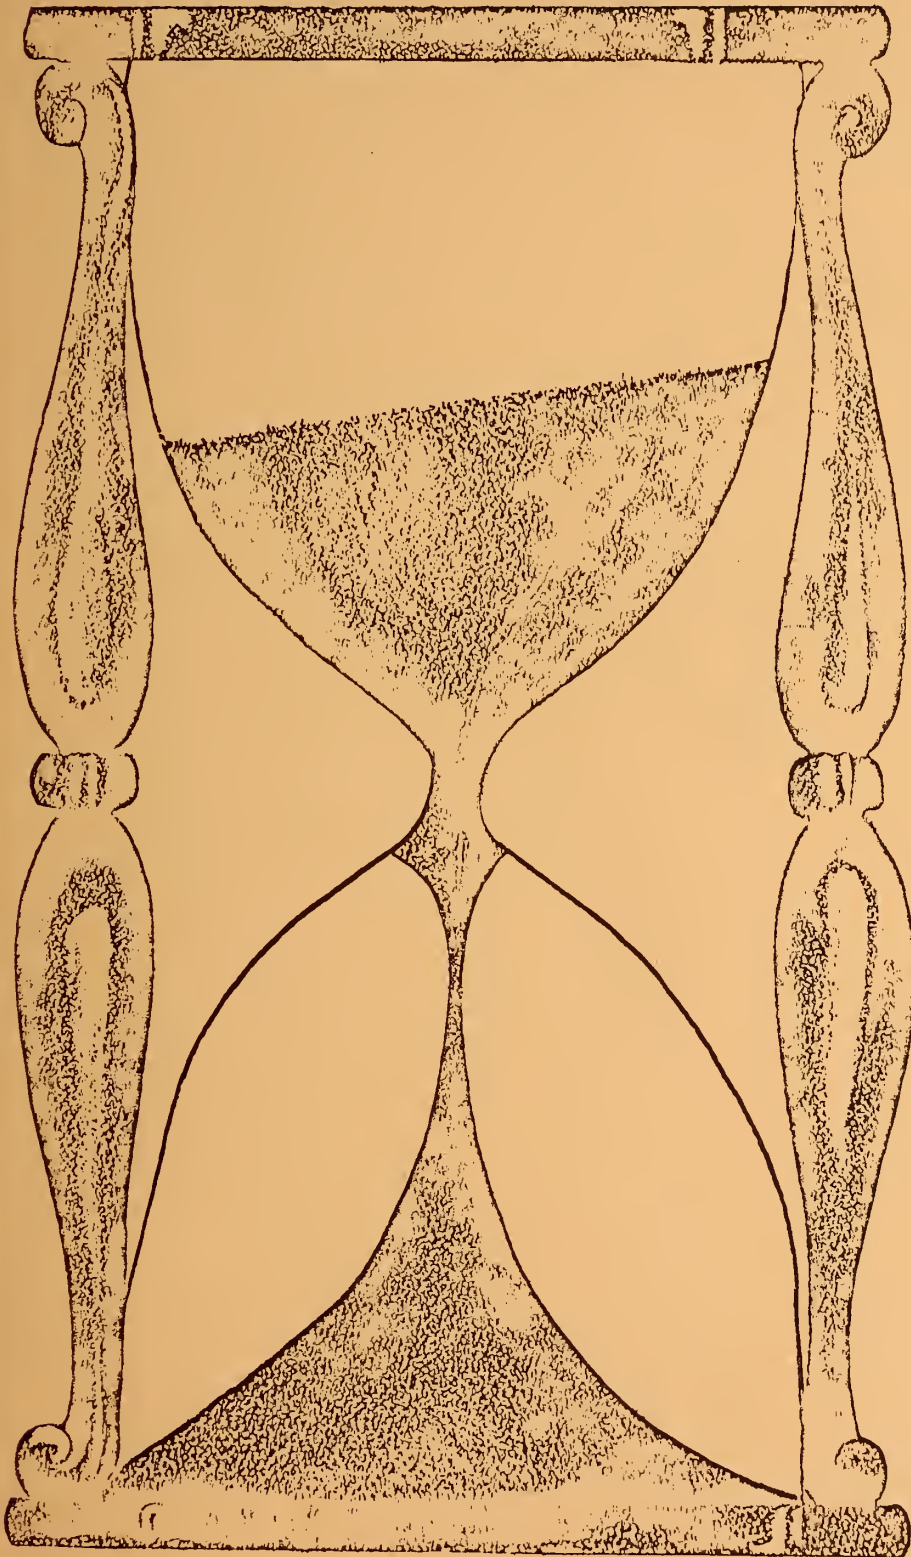

Though juggernauts can impede one's livelihood
To create a Christlike brotherhood,
God sent a hope by the "Morning Star"
Which steamboated down the Mississippi from afar.

Awakened by a thought of E. G. White
The General Conference responded with delight
To build a school for the Black youth
That they might spread the Adventist truth.

History is molded by past events
Whether they are cheers or loud laments;
As long as memory can recall the past,
O.C.'s chronicles will ever last.

In the abyss of these lengthened years
Time grips the memory of many silent tears,
Which lights the paths in which we tread
Left by the footprints of the living and the dead.

Oakwood Students listen as I cry:
Togetherness is my soul's desire.

I urge you—don't forget
The Union of us all—
Friend and foe together
Is our Master's call.

I urge you—don't forget
The way we sing the song
Of how we've come by faith,
Leaning on the Master's arm.

Out of the abysses of history,
Through the labyrinth of time
Across rivers of faith and hope,
Oakwood has advanced.

Out of the aspirations of students
And realities of men
Made real by God to them
Oakwood has advanced.

With the ultimate desire to reach Heaven,
Oakwood will advance!

Dr. Hale Introduces New College President, Elder Calvin B. Rock

'66 Dr. Frank W. Hale, Jr. '71

Oakwood College

HUNTSVILLE, ALABAMA 35806

OFFICE OF THE PRESIDENT

Dear Fellow Students:

The imminent celebration of the seventy-fifth anniversary of Oakwood College offers a fitting occasion to extend a word of congratulations and good wishes. Over these decades, Oakwood has filled a providential role. In training leaders for the black Seventh-day Adventist community, it has met a need that was real and pressing. Through the efforts of these leaders, the sturdy faith and rich religious principles and practices that are so distinctive of the Church took deep root in these men and in the communities which they served.

May I challenge you as students of Oakwood College to continue that tradition. Guard jealously your religion, your language, your customs, and your honor.

As have students at Oakwood College in the past, you know joy and sorrow. You have experienced the high inspiration of a Week of Prayer, the feeling of butterflies in the stomach when unprepared for an examination, the sting of punishment for breaking curfew. You complain about the food, yet rarely leave anything on your plates; you groan at your class assignments, yet find fault with those professors who are "too easy". You are anxious to leave, yet you will return in years to come to "chew the fat" about the "good old days". You pray in chapel and worship and still get into mischief; you swear brotherly love and fight behind the gym; you make resolutions and fall into laziness. You hate the bell that rouses you in the morning and love it beyond measure when it sounds to end the class period. You "cram" for tests, and "razz" those classmates whom you consider "eager beavers". You know the keen pleasure of making the Honor Roll and the dread visit to the Office of the Dean.

As students of Oakwood, you are proud of your religious and cultural heritage, and proud to be an integral and vibrant part of the Oakwood College Tradition.

Strengthened by a fine tradition, I join you in the prayer that the years ahead will bring continued success to your efforts and even greater rewards in spiritual satisfaction for all associated in service and concern for Oakwood College.

Sincerely yours,

A handwritten signature in dark ink, appearing to read "Frank W. Hale, Jr.", written in a cursive style.

"The President's Message"

Dear Fellow Students:

In my short stay at Oakwood College, I have become aware of the emergency of a sagacious, exuberant, deferential, "New Breed" of students comprising the student body. New records are set every year in athletic, academic, and artistic spheres. Today's "New Breed" is younger than past generations doing college work, and there is a high degree of autonomy, tenacity, and resoluteness. Compared with past generations, they are stronger physically and more alert mentally.

I wish to draw an analogy in collective reference of the student as a tall, stalwart youth with bulging biceps, throbbing with strength. The challenge to the "New Breed" today is to put this powerful anatomical structure to work in God's vineyard. Continue to develop physically, mentally, morally, and spiritually. May an elevating spirit accompany you as you go out to penetrate the psychological barriers of the mundane mind and substitute celestial themes.

God bless you.

Sincerely,

When a person destroys the property of another, it does not only affect the victim but those who consider the act unjust as well. As a family of Oakwood-ites, we sometimes argue as most families do. However, in the past we've always managed to solve our own problems.

At present, our family is faced with another flare up. This time, the fault is not one that lies with the administration. Nor am I saying that it is the fault of the students. However when an asinine act such as this one is conducted, the culprit is to be felt sorry for, rather than condemned.

This incident is not to be passed off as just another misfortune on a college campus. Some might laugh and say "too bad." However, how many of us really feel the frustration of something like this.

Dear Charles,

This past year has been a very enjoyable one even though it wasn't as much fun as Pine Forge. Remember all of the Mellanophones trips we went on especially the Philly trip with the wine heads on the corner. And the time the food got thrown on the floor in cafeteria that Sabbath. We had a lot of frivolous fun last year. But this year is serious year. Will be cool and stay sweet.

With an air of solemnity and respect, let us venture into the past once more and view a few of those memorable personages who shall forever live as an intricate part of Oakwood College.

Mother Cunningham

Former Dean

Dear Charles,

It has been a great joy going to school with you for two years. I'm really glad we became friends, and I hope our friendship will last forever. I will always remember you by those "big pretty ^{brownish} black eyes" and your long black eye lashes! (Smile)

I will also remember our little conversations we have had. Continue to be sweet as you like in whatever you do.

New years.

Oakwood College, a historically black four-year liberal arts college, was established in 1896 in Huntsville, Alabama, after the General Conference of Seventh-day Adventists authorized a three-man educational committee to select a site in the South for a school for Negro youth. As these men walked under the sixty-five towering oaks that stood on what was to become the heart of the campus, they decided that the place should be called Oakwood.

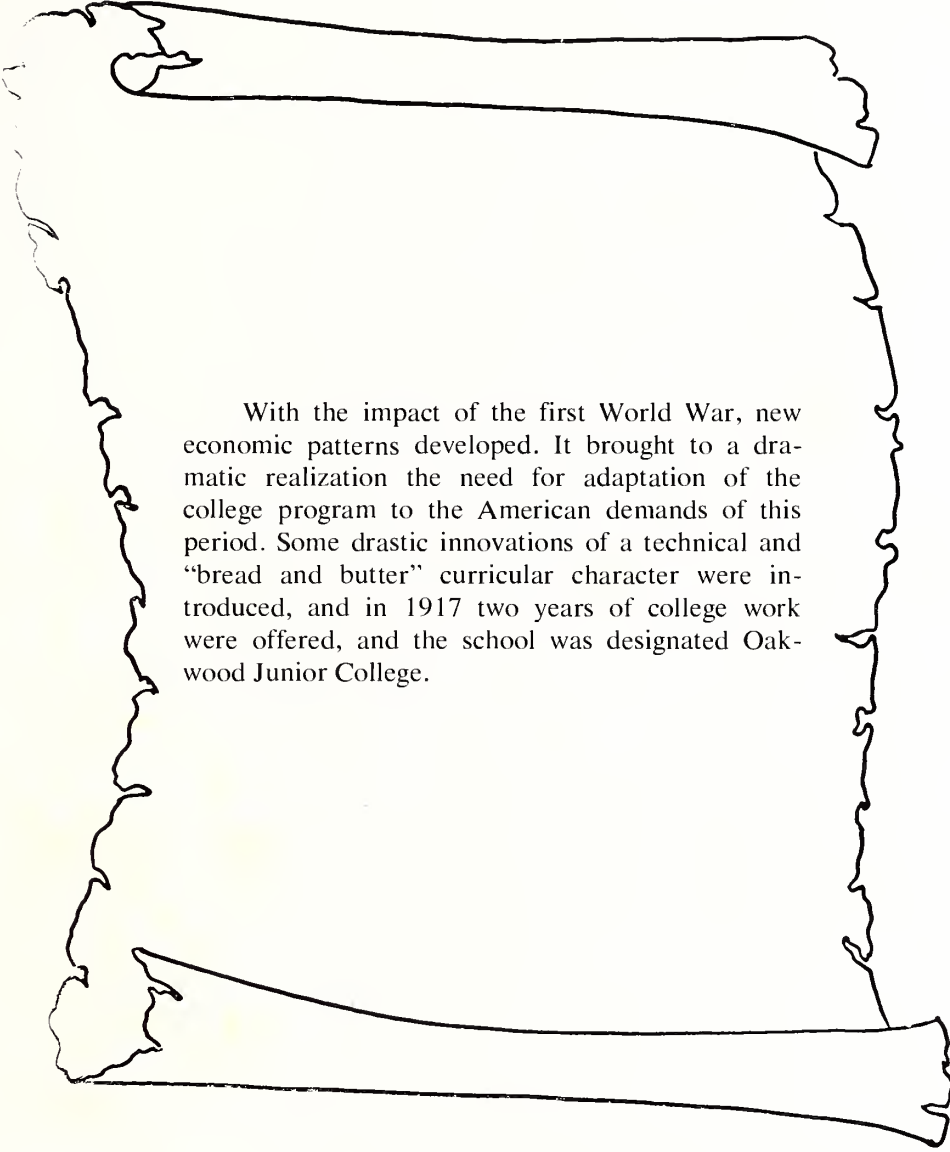

With four buildings and property valued at $10,157.57, with four teachers and about twenty-four students, Oakwood Industrial School opened its doors on November 16, 1896.

Operating as a secondary school and emphasizing industrial and agricultural education after a few years, the name was changed to Oakwood Manual Training School. It was the only school in the Seventh-day Adventist denomination devoted exclusively to the educating and training of colored young people to become workers to labor for their own race. As the years passed, more and more emphasis was placed upon training for the ministry.

"73" Kute!

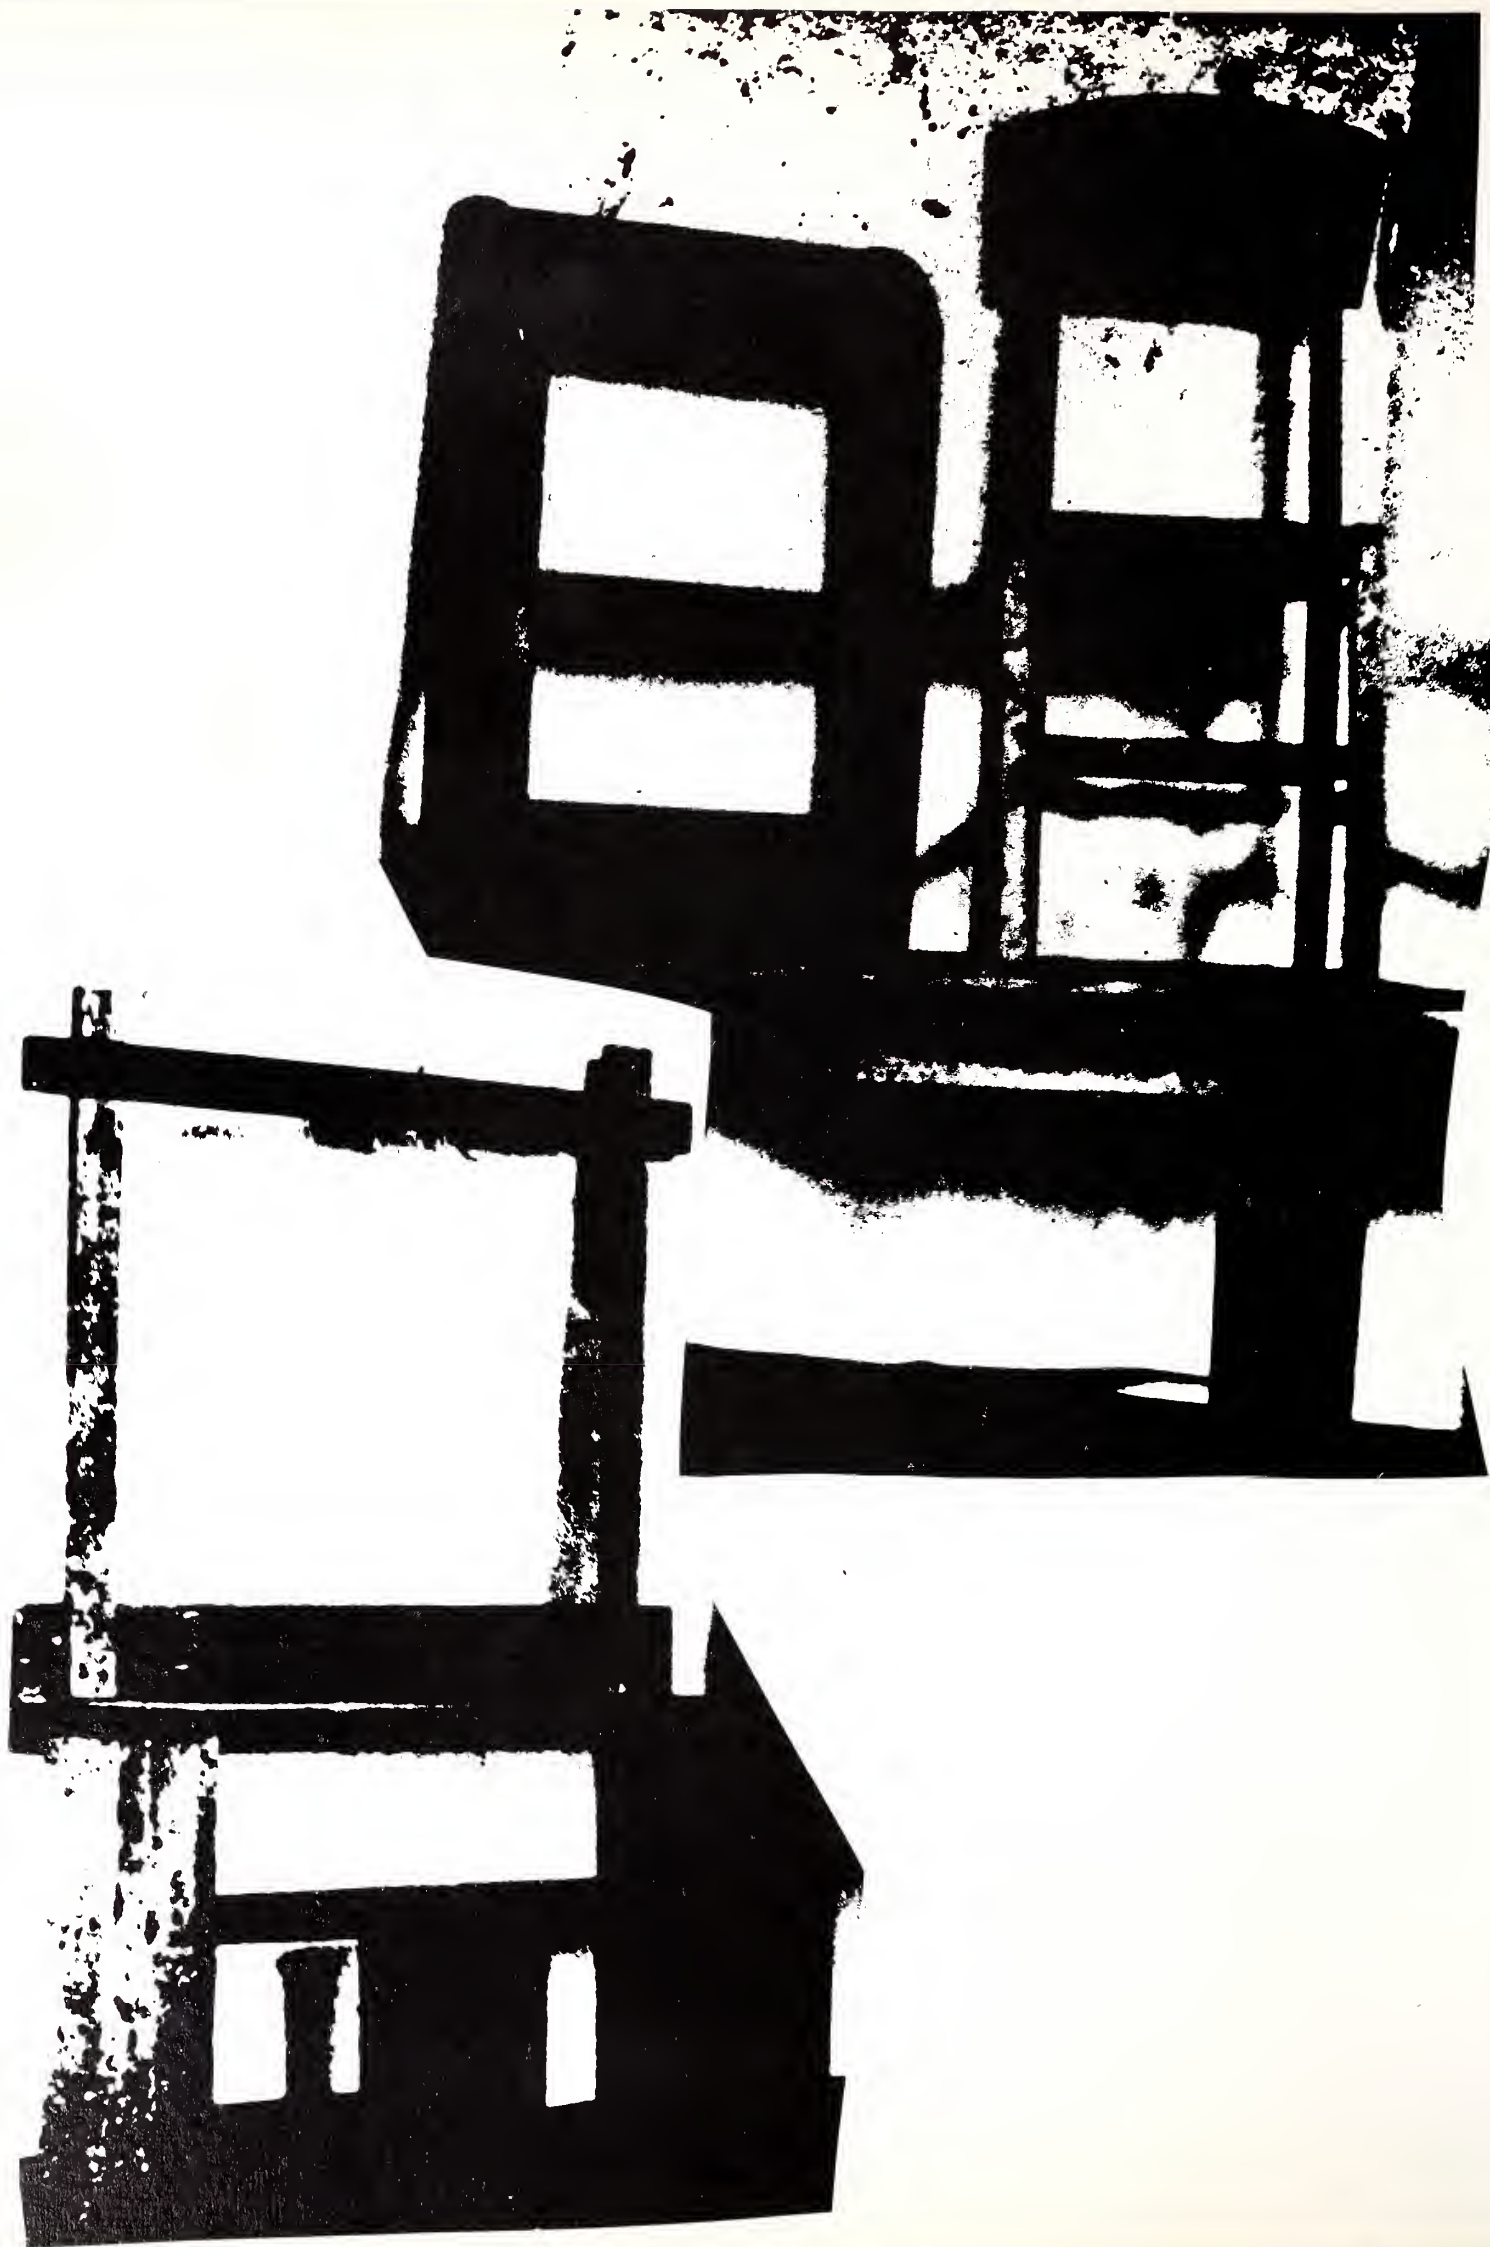

With the impact of the first World War, new economic patterns developed. It brought to a dramatic realization the need for adaptation of the college program to the American demands of this period. Some drastic innovations of a technical and "bread and butter" curricular character were introduced, and in 1917 two years of college work were offered, and the school was designated Oakwood Junior College.

Dr. Dykes

Former Chairman of Division of Humanities and Head of English Department.

The significant academic advancement of Oakwood College and its continuing contribution to the development of black leaders stand as achievements to this institution's function as a major avenue for higher education for black youth. While the prestige of numerous institutions (black and white) has somewhat been determined by a number of applicants to whom they have closed their doors, Oakwood College has accepted the challenge of accepting black students where they are (academically), for the most part. Armed with the educational implications of cultural and intellectual deprivation, we have accepted the responsibility of reparative work for our black youth.

Elder Moran

First Black President of Oakwood

ALMA MATER

Our dear Oakwood within whose vale
Thy standards will not fail,
Our hearts are filled with wondrous cheer
When thoughts of thee draw near,
We love thy pines, thy elms, thy oaks
And campus always green,
Thy many flowers and distant mounts,
Form one impressive scene.

From states afar and isles of sea
Thy students come to thee,
And fain do linger in thy halls
Enlightened truthfully,
From nature's scenes they ever learn,
And study from thy soil,
Till many more thy works discern
We'll pray for thee and toil.

As happy birds come in the spring
And sing not for their pay,
Rich, natural melodies they bring
Cheering thruout the day.
We too will serve thee faithfully
In all we do and say.
We hope in God, we trust in thee
True and loyal we'll be.

CHORUS

To thee our dear Oakwood
To thee we shall ever sing,
For decades thou hast stood
Thy name should ever ring.
Here we've spent our happy days
So we love to sing thy praise,
And wherever we may be
We'll always be true to thee
Our worthy dear old O.C.

Former Educational Secretary for Southern Division

Numerous students have distinguished themselves as they have received recognition, prizes, and awards for scholarly excellence. Edward Cartwright, '68, was awarded a $16,000 four year scholarship to the Yale University School of Medicine. Alvin Jackson, biology major, won the English Speaking Union Luard Scholarship from among 400 competitors in 1969. The scholarship entitled the winner to spend his junior year in an English university. Amos Okrah, '70, chemistry major, was the recipient of a $3,000 scholarship at the University of Pennsylvania School of Medicine where he was accepted in a class of 120 from among 2,400 applicants. Raymond Wimbush, '70, psychology major, was awarded an $18,000 scholarship at the University of Chicago to complete the requirements of the doctorate in psychology at that institution. Four of Oakwood's voice majors were auditioned and accepted at the Juilliard School of Music for the opening of school this year. Joyce Cordell, '70, English major, was awarded a $15,000 scholarship at the Ohio State University to complete the requirements for the doctorate in Speech Therapy. LaJean Martin, '70, education major, received a $5,300 scholarship in Library Science from the University of Illinois."

As you close this section of history, keep in mind that yesterday is just as important as today and even tomorrow.

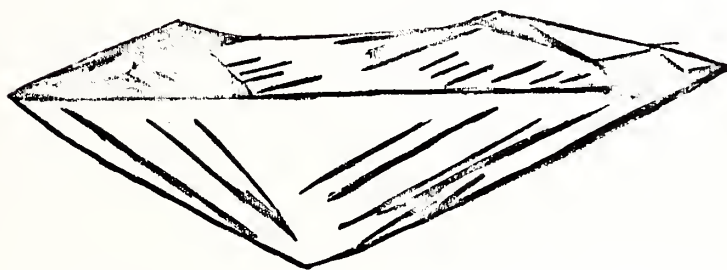

We learn from the past the means of coping with the future.

Dear Charles;
 I have really been my pleasure knowing you for the past year and a half (since you can't be sure). I'm really glad that you became acquainted with me before the school year was up. I'll always remember all the fun times we had, especially in the cafeteria. Even your funny faces. (smile)
 Now and happiness that you life has success and always come out on top, if you to offer. You'll always be friends until just keep get you down! I continue to be just problems hope not to you are now, don't change unless And I'll try as you are you look back on this from our stay better. And hope you remember me as I am time to time. I hope you look back on this from now, with a "happy face".
 Don't forget me ok.

The terse recapitulation of another fading year of memories in a segmented volume has been an unforgettable challenge in my life. Without the diligence and self-abnegation of my persistent staff, all of my hopes and dreams, that have been transformed into reality, would still be idealistic. Humbly I confess that the time consumed by this book, the mental agony expelled, and the pleasurable moments of progress have been the experiences of a road once trod in life.

If I were able to search a thousand commentaries for the most proper and fitting words to express my gratitude to all of those who have aided in the compilation of this book, I am sure that I could not find any better words than those stated by Shakespeare:

"Thanks, thanks, and ever thanks".

Alfred (big) I am so glad that you are in London, I discovered that I had "kin" down here. Their really me of the present day I know. I hope in truly get to know each other down here because to be truly that most in our own and the accidentally. I will do it with down here because to be truly
that most in our own and the accidentally. I will do it with
